

5th Grade Fall Campus Battle of the Books List

Life As We Knew It

Hoot

City of Ember

Saving Shiloh

Among the Hidden

Flipped

Define Normal

Hatchet

My Life in Dog Years (biography)

There's a Boy in the Girl's Bathroom

Stargirl

Misery Guts

Competition Description

There will be 12 books for each grade level competition. Students will need to know both the title and author of each book. The teams will need to answer detail questions about each book as well as identify quotes from the books.

Competition will be held the week before Winter Break.

Procedures for competition

How many students will be on a team?

Will we have prizes for the winning team for each grade level in addition to participating in the lock-in at the end of the year?

Reading teachers will decide in each block how the competing team is chosen.

Teachers will conduct a competition between each class/block to determine the team to participate in the academy competition.

The class winner will compete against the other class winners in each academy to determine the academy winner.

The academy winner will compete against the other academies to determine the grade level winner.

Questions will be provided for the class, academy and grade level competitions as well as sample questions for practice. Each competition set will have a minimum of 14 questions and the sample sets will have a minimum of 10 questions. Tie breaker questions will be held in reserve to use as needed.

Competition rules will be provided prior to the December competitions.

6th Grade Fall Campus Battle of the Books List

The Hunger Games

Day of Tears

The Giver

The Thief

Of Sound Mind

Al Capone Does My Shirts

Facing the Lion

Oddballs

The Wave

The Egypt Game

Neighborhood Odes

The Pushcart War

Competition Description

There will be 12 books for each grade level competition. Students will need to know both the title and author of each book. The teams will need to answer detail questions about each book as well as identify quotes from the books.

Competition will be held the week before Winter Break.

Procedures for competition

How many students will be on a team?

Will we have prizes for the winning team for each grade level in addition to participating in the lock-in at the end of the year?

Reading teachers will decide in each block how the competing team is chosen.

Teachers will conduct a competition between each class/block to determine the team to participate in the academy competition.

The class winner will compete against the other class winners in each academy to determine the academy winner.

The academy winner will compete against the other academies to determine the grade level winner.

Questions will be provided for the class, academy and grade level competitions as well as sample questions for practice. Each competition set will have a minimum of 14 questions and the sample sets will have a minimum of 10 questions. Tie breaker questions will be held in reserve to use as needed.

Competition rules will be provided prior to the December competitions.

5th Grade Spring Campus Battle of the Books List

Ender's Game	Because of Winn Dixie
People of Sparks	PS Longer Letter Later
The Bad Beginning	Pictures of Hollis Woods
Holes	The Golden Compass
Number the Stars	A Corner of the Universe
Seedfolks	Out from Boneville

Competition Description

There will be 12 books for each grade level competition. Students will need to know both the title and author of each book. The teams will need to answer detail questions about each book as well as identify quotes from the books.

Competition will be held after STAAR.

Procedures for competition

How many students will be on a team?

Will we have prizes for the winning team for each grade level in addition to participating in the lock-in at the end of the year?

Reading teachers will decide in each block how the competing team is chosen.

Teachers will conduct a competition between each class/block to determine the team to participate in the academy competition.

The class winner will compete against the other class winners in each academy to determine the academy winner.

The academy winner will compete against the other academies to determine the grade level winner.

Questions will be provided for the class, academy and grade level competitions as well as sample questions for practice. Each competition set will have a minimum of 14 questions and the sample sets will have a minimum of 10 questions. Tie breaker questions will be held in reserve to use as needed.

Competition rules will be provided prior to the competitions.

6th Grade Spring Campus Battle of the Books List

Eragon	Bloomability
Gathering Blue	Redwall
Things Not Seen	Milkweed
Bud Not Buddy	A Strong Right Arm
Crazyfish	Habibi
Full Tilt	Homeless Bird

Competition Description

There will be 12 books for each grade level competition. Students will need to know both the title and author of each book. The teams will need to answer detail questions about each book as well as identify quotes from the books.

Competition will be held after STAAR.

Procedures for competition

How many students will be on a team?

Will we have prizes for the winning team for each grade level in addition to participating in the lock-in at the end of the year?

Reading teachers will decide in each block how the competing team is chosen.

Teachers will conduct a competition between each class/block to determine the team to participate in the academy competition.

The class winner will compete against the other class winners in each academy to determine the academy winner.

The academy winner will compete against the other academies to determine the grade level winner.

Questions will be provided for the class, academy and grade level competitions as well as sample questions for practice. Each competition set will have a minimum of 14 questions and the sample sets will have a minimum of 10 questions. Tie breaker questions will be held in reserve to use as needed.

Competition rules will be provided prior to the competitions.